Jeffrey, the following message is from Sean:

I have an idea, what if we offered Cargill a lease back. We buy it now and let them keep for a specific period of time and then we get it back off of lease and put it in for Mr E's interior. If we could get it for $22.0 and lease payments I think that is a deal. If he just hates it then there is no point in it but it is a thought

Best regards,
