due to gift tax considerations, tha max i can give to each girl is 13 k. they and you can either adjust trip , negotiate better prices,, (which I think is the best option, I am very familiar with the flexibility of some of the accomadations you have chosen.. and as their flights still need booking, It looks like business class is out. thanks

Dear Jeffrey,

Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Stephanie Hatfield and I am taking care of all the arrangements for [REDACTED] Kenya Safari and Internship.

I have attached a copy of the itinerary for your reference as well as our pre-departure information that discusses immunizations and other important issues for travel to East Africa.

I am currently looking into airfare options for business class flights to Nairobi and will be in touch as soon as I have an air schedule and quote. Once we have that, I will invoice you for the total trip.

Thank you Jeffrey and please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Have a wonderful afternoon!

Warm Regards,
Stephanie.
