Hey JE!!!

How are you? The final countdown to release must be well underway...I'm very excited for you!

Sorry it's been so long- it's been hectic over here trying to figure out [REDACTED]'s income situation and where we're moving. After what was a heated 2 months of debate and deliberation, we've decided to move to [REDACTED] in August. [REDACTED] has accepted an adjunct professorship at the undergrad [REDACTED] so he'll be teaching this fall in addition to his work with the [REDACTED]. We'll be leaving [REDACTED] shortly and heading for Maine where [REDACTED] will work for his Dad for summer- it's all a bit of a hodge podge solution but we're feeling good about it.

[REDACTED]'s in talks with [REDACTED] at the moment but aside from that, he's still researching the co's he's planning to target. I'll keep you posted as things progress.

Lots of love,

[REDACTED]
