Hi [REDACTED]

I hope all is well. Take a look at the bottom of this e-mail for great video links of our equipment, plus a list all some of our notable installations in Florida. Please let me know if you have any questions or need any more information.

For the past 26 years, Technogym has been helping fitness facilities achieve a unique, consistent, branded experience for their clientele that differentiates their fitness facility from all others.

Take a look at these great websites:
We have a customer in Los Angeles that put together a nice segment to promote their Technogym equipment on their website.

Click the link below and once the site downloads click 'Welcome'

And another customer in Raleigh also put us in their website, click on the link below and once the site downloads click 'Equipment'

Yours in Health,
Hans Michel
