hoped you enjoyed the reference to the humor papers i spent a very exciting week at Oklahoma State at Stillwater, packed rooms for each of three lectures—200 D&S-D, 350 Fem. Homo & Honor Killing and then quite astonishing next day >200 spilling out into the hallway, students sitting against a wall meaning they would see no slides—this all on Recent Advances in Human Evolutionary Genetics—with a tremendously positive response to what was the most technical material in my visit i think many had heard me at one or both of the previous talks and said, what the f... let's learn some evolutionary genetics if they convert this into a job as they say they are trying to—or if CUNY comes through with something plausible, then the handling of my retirement money from Rutgers will be a minor matter—i will take the minimum 5% required right into my Foundation and accrue further retirement money, while losing nothing on the New Jersey end

BTW you may remember that CUNY's $20,000 for four months in town does not cover living expenses—but if they permit the course to meet twice a week for two month, i will live on Long Island and clear $15,000 minus contributions to travel or research or, i understand they do have some subsidized faculty apartments in NYC (i would prefer the former)

i hope all is more than well with you

bob
