Subject: might explain why they want more

=span>"He explains that traditional systems of education have skewed the meaning of life (towards arriving at a destination) by placing too much importance on progressing through school and college to a career," Branson wrote. "And makes his point by saying that far too many people=20 live to retire and therefore cheat themselves of an exciting existence.&quo=;

That=s why Branson doesn't think retirement should be the goal. "I=stead, I think happiness should be," he wrote.

"I've never thought [of] work as work and play as play; to me, it's all living and learning. The way I see it, life is all about striving and growing. I never want to have made it; I want to continue making it!"<=span>
