Questions answered

How could one engine be original if the airframe time is 6000 hours and the engine has 4400 and 12000 hours,??

I could understand if the engine had 6000 hours

How do we respond?

PATS did the floor plan change, I'll find out their location

Thx

Dear Larry

- Facility who did the board room change was Pats.

- Engines issue answered previously. One is original, the other is part of snagging program which is mixed within the fleet. However both engines are far away from Overhaul and have high EGT margins. Highest in the fleet actually at 40 and 35 deg EGT margin.

- No cabin altitude mod done
