Caribbean Update: Six Months Post-Hurricanes Bohlke International Airways team presents exclusive footage on Caribbean panel at NBAA International Operators Conference

Dear Valued Customer,

When we at Bohlke International Airways were asked to present the majority of the Caribbean update at the recent National Business Aviation Association (NBAA) International Operators Conference in Vegas, we wanted everyone to see it with their own eyes. So we worked with Offland Media to fly around the Caribbean in early March to film current, exclusive footage.

Sincere appreciation to our neighbors in the aviation community for helping us with this project:

- * David Kang of Avfuel, Moderator, NBAA IOC Caribbean Region Panel
- * Susan and Michael Hancock at St Thomas Jet Center at Cyril E. King Airport
- * Cdr. Bud Slabbaert of the Caribbean Aviation Meetup in St. Maarten
- * Sheldon Palm of ExecuJet Aviation Group at Princess Juliana International Airport

We hope this exclusive look into the current state of the Caribbean gives you a concrete idea of how far we have come in our hurricane recovery. Our islands are open for business and ready to host visitors.

Warm regards,

The Bohlke team
