
From: jeffrey E. <jeevacation@gmail.com>
Sent: Sunday, August 14, 2016 1:52 PM
To: Kathy Ruemmler

could i have your views whether you think this type of ex=ostions (ignore typos and grammar) is useful for a sar=h - ██████████ complaint

=C2 Over the past 10 years, Jeffrey Epstein has been the subject of a repetitive streamthe<=ns cite="mailto:Jeffrey%20Epstein" datetime="2016-08-14T06:37"> punching bag of tabloid publicity, <=span>improperly released police reports, wildly exaggerated (and if not contained in court procdedings they would be =/span> defamatory<=ins>) litigation pleadings and young women ,each that =ame to his home, females=hom later were =C2 him were reported to be underage, for sexually charged massages Most of whom came nack time and gain. Including calling asking for a time to ret=rn. In a community where . , and where many of the girls actually worke=. However Flori=a has a statute , (3) IGNORANCE OR BELIEF OF VICT=M'S AGE.—The perpetrator's ignorance of the victim's age, the victim =80 s misrepresentation of his or her age, or the perpetrator's bona fide belief of the victim=E2 s age cannot be raised as a defense in a prosecution under this section.

Or =ho works in a strip club=ins cite="mailto:Jeffrey%20Epstein" datetime="2016-08-14T06:49">, or bar (the two plaintiffs currently suing the govt. after taking advantage of the very sam= agreement that they now want to overturn , having received hundreds of thousands of dollars as a direct compulsory term of that very same agreemen= they now seek to overturn.

Turning local prostitution</=ns> into the heinous crime of SEX TRAFFICKING was the goal of ██████████ book. Sex trafficking gets attention , local prostitution . a state crime , would not have gotten her TV interviews .

=/span>From the very beginning, Due to Mr Epsteins wealth and prominence <=span>these reports, pleadings and stories have been tabloid fodder </=pan> rife with exaggeration, =mission, and outright falsehoods. =/span>Though over a decade has passed W=th the passage of time, as the story they told, which is and only ever really was a story about a wealthy Palm Beach =E2 john" who frequently solicited local prostitution a legitimatefor a quite colorful who got caught up in a local =candal and would have quickly =/span> for frequen=ly soliciting local prostitution, becoame old news, had not some financially and politically motivated private individuals, lawyers and journalists have attempte= time and againstrategy to breathe new life into it. One of the most agreicious examples in book form seprate and apart from allegations of underage sex with princes academics biz people world leaders ██████████ new=book, TraffickKing, first publi=hed on July 6, 2016, irresponsibly assembles the worst of these allegations and fabricates even more inflammatory ones of her own in order to create a false and wildly exa=gerated tale, sold as non fiction about Mr.
Epstein and the Plaintiffs,. She creates a delusion of and their=ins cite="mailto:Jeffrey%20Epstein" datetime="2016-08-14T06:58"> SEX trafficking and other detestable criminal behavior, that bears ab=olutely no resemblance whatsoever to the in order to sell books . nothing more truth.

For a variety of legitimate reasons, including ongoing litigation unfairly seeking to invali=ate Mr. Epstein's agreement with federal prosecutors and have him crimi=ally prosecuted for the same events a second time, Epstein's express desire to limi= further turmoil to those with whom he interacted in the scandal and those around hi= who had no part in it, and the seeming futility in trying to provide sorely needed balance to a story that has been spun completely off its axis<=span>, Mr. Epstein and his representatives have deliberately remained s=lentnot given any interviews </=pan>about these events. In fact they have remained so quiet that So much so that in January 2015, Jean Luc Brunel, a modeling agent, long time friend of Mr Epstein, w=o is also unfairly and falsely reviled portrayed , without any evidence whatsoever, as a sex trafficker in [REDACTED] abhorrent creation, sued Epstein for =ailing to publicly renounce these false allegations leveled against Epstein and him, including those perpetuated by [REDACTED] her book =span class=""> She makes wild acc=sations against an industry that legitimately hires young women to model. And =hrough her distorted lens turn evey modeling agent into a criminal. <=h1>

With Epstein's silence and, for obvious reasons, a dearth of individuals willing to risk their own reputations to defend persons and offensive events depicted with ever increasing severity<=del>, a vacuum has been created to allow [REDACTED], a shameless and delusional self-promoter, to peddle to a voracious but unsuspecting public an infantil= distortion in the name of human rights. = [REDACTED] "TrafficKing" is a frighteningly irresponsible compilation =f untested fantastical allegations, unsupportable assumptions, shoddily pieced togethe= circumstantial evidence and paranoid speculation. It is poorly researched, carelessly sourced and alarmingly inaccurate. Though presented in s tyle that includes footnotes in most=chapters. Many =span class="">of which upon researching do not exist.

Pages 94 through 108 of TrafficKing clearly establish that [REDACTED], tells a tale of her havi=g recently been terrified during an investigation in Mexico into true sex traf=icking and government corruption, was already primed to accept as given a l=ink between sex trafficking and government corruption. She says she re=d a few articles in which the lawyers representing a =span class="">few women prosecuting in civil cases against Ep=tein where were trying to create public pressure on Epstein. What is clear fro= her narrative is that from the beginning she assumed the truth of every negativ= statement asserted against Epstein and his associates and as a result of her first hand experience of government corruption and s=x trafficking, immediately assumed similar conduct taking place in the Epstei= case. All the research she co=ducted thereafter was clearly informed by this pre-conceived a=d completely erroneous notion that Epstein's wealth and power were us=d to insulate him and his associates from the consequences of <=span>a serious criminal=activity.

[REDACTED] bias has made her recklessly indifferent to the truth in the Epstein case and singularly unwilling to exercise even a modic=m of critical analysis or objectivity. =She draws her "facts" and conclusions from very obviously biase= and unreliable sources without any scrutiny, due diligence or professional journalistic objectivity, choosing to accept without question any and all negative allegations against Mr. Epstein and his associates and to fully discard any=and all evidence that demonstrates an absence of credibility of her sources or =he implausibility of the information they provide.

Consequently, in TrafficKing, Ms. [REDACTED] has published a fabrication riddled with blatant defamation, particularly relating to the P=aintiffs, their relationships with Epstein and their involvement in the matters givin= rise to Mr. Epstein's legal problems. In fact, [REDACTED] ignored clear warnings about the problems with her book, conc=ding at page xii-xiv that "publishers were afraid to print my book for f=ar of" libel and legal action and that 6 different publishers rejected her manuscr=pt. Acting with f=ll knowledge of her publishers skepticism and warnings and with clear malice i= the face of so many voices saying your story is inaccurate, [REDACTED] should have heeded those warnings as the numerous defamatory statements in TrafficKing have severely and irreparably damaged the reputations of Plaintiffs, two innocents unfairly caught in its destructive wake.

[REDACTED] [Background]

[REDACTED] [Background]

Investigation by Palm Beach Police Department

As has been reported over and over for the past 10 years. In March 2005, the Palm Beach Police Department opened a criminal investigation of Mr. Epstein when the father and stepmother of [REDACTED] complained to police about a visit by their 14-year old daughter to Mr. Epstein's Palm Beach home. What has not been reported is that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] informed police that they believed inappropriate conduct may have occurred between Mr. Epstein and their daughter. The police interviewee [REDACTED], who had visited Mr. Epstein's home only once, but brought no charges after interviewing her, though monitored activity at Mr. Epstein's home through sporadic surveillance and occasional trash pulls.

There are several reasons that explain this result. [REDACTED] told the Palm Beach Police on more than one occasion that she was instructed by [REDACTED] = the woman who brought her to Mr. Epstein's home, that [REDACTED] had to tell Mr. Epstein she was 18 years old because, if she was not 18, he would not let her into his house. [REDACTED] also informed the Police that she did in fact tell Mr. Epstein that she was 18 years old. She also informed police that Mr. Epstein had no sexual contact with her. Mr. Epstein took a lie detector test, the results of which confirmed that [REDACTED] told him she was 18, that he believed [REDACTED] when she told him her age, that he never threatened [REDACTED] in any way and that no sexual contact occurred with [REDACTED]. In addition, [REDACTED], who had previous run-ins with the Police, maintained a "MySpace page at the time of the investigation on which she stated that she was 18 years old, posted naked and provocative photographs, admitted to having sex. that she was not a virgin, to using drugs, and to having beaten someone up, and to having shoplifted and claimed to earn $250,000 or more.

=AO In addition, the persons who filed the police report, [REDACTED] =99s father and stepmother, both had criminal records.=C2 The father had served 21 months in federal prison for bank fraud, and the stepmother had a state conviction for identity fraud. Moreover, [REDACTED] true motivation for going to the police later became apparent when they held a press conference on the courthouse steps announcing their civil lawsuit seeking substantial monetary damages from Mr. Epstein. They commenced that lawsuit without authorization from [REDACTED] though she was now an adult. and it was ultimately dismissed. [REDACTED] did eventually file her own lawsuit in order to profit from these events, despite the fact that she had already confirmed to the police that she lied to Mr. Epstein, specifically telling him that she was 18 years old, and that no sexual contact with him occurred [need to confirm this from transcripts] on the one occasion that she went to his house. =See March 13, 2005 Transcript of Interview with [REDACTED] at 38:21-39:4, 39:9-18.

* *=AO [REDACTED]

Q: =C2 At any time, did he speak to you and does he know how old you are? Did he know how old you were?

A: =C2 . . . As a matter of fact, [REDACTED] told me to say I was 18 because [REDACTED] said tell him you're 18 because if you're not, then he won't really let you in his house. So I said I was 18. As I was giving him a massage, he =99s like, how old are you? And then I was like 18. But I kind of said it=really fast because I didn't want to make it sound like I was lying or anything. (Sworn Police Statement of 3/15/05).

--

=AO please note

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of JEE Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com , and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments. copyright -all rights reserved