Yes all objects have EM field

In Biological Organisms the EM field changes with emotional shifts =AO

I promise this is documented

Your brain waves and heat EKG are part of this field

We have published the effects of meditation on this with Eric Topol from Scripps (look him up) in Frontiers in Neuroscience

Will send you the paper when I get to California

Maybe we are speaking of different things

I have 6 hours now on the flight to meditate - delicious !

Consciousness is referred to as a dimensionless field by some in that field - pun intended
The human biofield which is electromagnetic can be picked up about 8 feet around a person

The paper could have been great . It is not. The word FIELD =A0dooms it. A field is an object in physics. A well defined object. That's not what you guys want. Maybe bio-cloud= Or something that does not immediately halt an amazing future
