Dearest Jeff

I'm still in Paris

My flight does not leave until 2PM

This article hints at the point I'm making in the book

We evoke a fictional universe that exists in the past in every act of perception

The universe we experience is a construct in a species specific ( human)=consciousness. I'm still planning to visit you for a short time. May be I can bring 2 copies of the galleys-only for you and one for Woody

I have an idea for both of you--a short film 5 min long " I used to=be an atheist until I realized I was God ( in drag )"

Love

Don't Let Them Tell You You're Not at the Center of the Universe

A timely answer to the question: "Where did the Big Bang happen?";
