Jeffrey,

Attached are photos from 14 years ago when we refurbi=hed Liz Claiborne's GIV using bleached white oak. Not the be=t photos, but thought it would provide a reference.</=>

Additionally, the last photo (attached) is from a GIV=p that a client is asking me for a refurbishment proposal. Although =t is old and worn, this is very close to a "whitewashed" white oak. Notice the the grayish tone of the grain on the lid (that conce=ls the switch panel and phone).

Bleached white oak samples will vary greatly depndent=upon customer preference – some time with a tan / grayish tone wit= some white highlights in the grain.
