He works in stamford and usually can't get in until evening. Do you have any evening slots later this week or next week. Also, will call you with a general clat question....

I've attached the resume of Joe Vinciguerra who is my recommendation for Rich Joslin's replacement. Currently, Joe is the #2 family tax person in Steve Cohen's Family Office. (The #1 also runs tax at the .72 level). Joe has a CPA and JD and is a strong, ambitious 35 year old. He worked at EY tax from 2007-2010 and .72/SAC from 2010 to present. I believe we could hire him for $400K or slightly less (which is a bit less than RJ's compensation).

I would minimally like to introduce him to Jeffrey for a face-time conversation: in person obviously better. Leon, if possible, I would like for you to meet him as well to develop a personal impression.

Thoughts?

P.S. Jeffrey - please don't reach out to the EY people yet. Among other things, Steve Cohen uses them personally. I suspect he'll check out with the head of high net worth tax (Elda DiRe), but people don't know he's interviewing with us. Let's respect his confidentiality until it's time to check him out with third parties.
