Dear Jeffrey,

You have generously support=d my research the last few years. The most recent $100K you years ago was supremely useful: because of the lack of restr=ctions on the gift, I was able to support visitors, students, an= activities that can't be supported by government grants.

I'm writing to see if you are interested in continuing the=support. If you could support the research, that would be gre=t.

In addition to looking for research support, I&=39;m also looking for ways to support a sabbatical for the academic <=iv>year 2017-2018 (MIT only pays half my salary for the year).

We have also talked about me checking out MIT's willingness to accept additional donations from you: would you like me to ask around?

Once again, thank you so much for your support: as noted, it is exceptionally effective, and it means a lot to me. Please give me a ring if you'd like to discuss this: [REDACTED]

I hope that you are well and that our paths cross soon. Any plans to show up in Cambridge? The last time was very fun.

Yours,
Seth
