I will cry with so many compliments

I think for the windows light we could put plastic ivy or plants outside ,but we will need light flat fabric scenes or neighbours could see you, but we need the maximum day light

We keep the chairs, they are very comfortable and the fabric is still beautiful

The back wall has the same painted canvas, with astral subject (earth and constellation) and a large buffet on console

We keep the double door, but painted on the side of the Dining , the 2 small doors will be flushed with the canvas and the painted wood frame of the walls

The room will need some nice plaster work, and I had the answer this morning, we could still make this big egg glass lantern, the bronze work will be nicer than on the antique model I took,

It was long but I needed this time , I am terribly happy you like the project

Thank you

the plan is brilliant . congratulations. = 1. we have to deal with the bad light in the windows and views. . , do you want to keep the chairs/ = the back wall is not shown, is that a buffet table . for food? and how do we deal with the doors? paint on one side . change them? etc. the ceiling lights made me laugh as , it is perfect. and even alberto did not figure it out. =o:p>
