The other thought I had was that F&W and ACE and NOAA were really receptive of the dock project and really sympathetic to the fact that the island is such a dump. I'm tempted to call the guys I met with and get their input on how they think the debris cleanup should be accomplished because JP would be hard pressed to disagree with their recommendations.

we just want a 70 foot circle of concrete for the helipad. . on gsj. , we should ask for standing permission to clean debris .
