Subject: lesson 1 , perception - reality- Krauss

i doubt your dinner was as funny as mine , but yours was probably more meaningful. I was crying with laughter listening to woos stories of his childhood. sorry you couldnt make it. =- definitely next time first open <http://gizmodo.com/5981603/20-optical-illusions-that-might-break-your-ind> , these are some basic illusions. there are also sound illusions <http://listverse.com/2008/02/29/top-10-incredible-sound-illusions/> <<http://listverse.com/2008/02/29/top-10-incredible-sound-illusions/>>

-- =A0 many examples in two different sense realms sight and sound - the takeaway - one is forced to admit , =A0 that even though they KNOW the reality, after being informed =A0 , they still can't see" it. no matter= how hard one tries, knowing it is an "illusion", =A0 does not give you power to change even your own mind =nd see it for what it really is. . it is a tough meditation especially the color illusions . adelsons checker illusion- <http://brainden.com/color-illusions.htm> would you prefer the first meeting=C2 , you , me and lawrence Krauss . so it becomes friendlie=.

I suggest as a strategy , you express the desire to learn where you might have misunderstood the science explanation. =A0 he is unaccustomed to humility.

you can then ask question re purpose, meaning. hope . and=ask for their mathematical , or scientific explanation. =e will stay away from time , infinities and quantum. at least for awhile. I will show you the mathematicians magic trick of adding =quot; a fudge factor" to fool the novice- =A0 how does he explain that if nothing is bigger than god or the infinite = and 1 is greater than nothing. isnt it clear that one is greater than god. if you are a physicist it appears you believe= you are that " one " .

=A0 I am off to see chomsky at Harvard tomorrow to discuss, the language of thoughts. he believes that the language that we use=C2 first begins as an INTERNAL language. and only later get= expressed by hijacking some of the other biological mechanisms =A0 tongue. breath to create a " spoken language "

=/div>

I am around all day if you are free. leave tomorrow =ntil the 22.
