Bruce – thought of you when watching the eve=ing news yesterday. Joe Biden was being interviewed about his work o= "Cancer Moonshot" or something like that. He said t=at they were working on or planned to work on a database/app that has never before been done, that would allow a patient or a physician to see w=o was doing research on a specific tumor anywhere in the world.<=u>

You've already got it. You have connec=ions everywhere, you should get to Biden on that work group.=/p>
