Jeffrey

I'm speaking with another person who is a friend of Chips in South Africa, name is Peter Van Der Spuy, he's a pilot, but has many clients that purchase aircraft., he says a G550 now., I sent our GIV photos to him, It is a shady deal, from the start if you read his email below,, he wants Cessna and so does the buyer's pilot, typical Africa deal,, their Budget is $=.5M according to the email., The buyer is traveling now and will get back to Peter soon., I'll keep you updated=if something solidifies.
