I have the papers with me about my will. = am having reservations about two accountants having power over my money f=r Mattie. They are strangers. I am thinking of leaving my money to her wit= stipulations that it can not be touched by any future spouses, only natur=l born children. If my brother outlives me and she gives it to him,=he will always be desperately broke and I don't care. I am dead. Matti= will not have control over her money....how do I know two accountants can=#39;t steal it from her. I am surrounded by stupid relatives...but they ar= blood. The accountants mean nothing to me, except being very helpful whil= I am alive.

Can I call you next week. Cell phones at Ginge not grea=. In London to Friday, July 1 then to Capri till July 6.

How are you?
