I am in London. Actually Ginge Manor for Sunday and sleeping over. Ginge (aka. "Cringe" Manor is the home of Lord and Lady Astor. Annabel =s the mother of Sam Cam.

England is in morning over =heir stupidity. Old people voted to keep migrants out without a cle=r agenda of exactly who or how. Everyone got screwed. Brits are so =a-ga over this miscalculation that they think the Donald will get in. =

I have the papers with me about my will. I am havin= reservations about two accountants having power over my money for Mattie.=They are strangers. I am thinking of leaving my money to her with stipulat=ons that it can not be touched by any future spouses, only natural born ch=ldren. If my brother outlives me and she gives it to him, he will a=ways be desperately broke and I don't care. I am dead. Mattie will not hav= control over her money....how do I know two accountants can't steal it fr=m her. I am surrounded by stupid relatives...but they are blood. The accou=tants mean nothing to me, except being very helpful while I am alive. =

Can I call you next week. Cell phones at Ginge not =reat. In London to Friday, July 1 then to Capri till July 6.
