Neale,

I caught =p with Milie (Next CFO) today, and during the call asked about her =amiliarity with the financial analyses being performed by Richard Kahn = Faith and Joel's advisors. She said the following:

- * Faith / Joel introduced =ichard to Milie as someone who would like to do an audit on their =ehalf.
- * Richard came with the =summary financials prepared by GGC (which we had sent to him late last =ear).
- * Milie walked him through =ow the business operates and how the financials are generated, and he =sked questions about certain topics such as payroll and model =ayables.
- * Milie also provided him =he raw financial files that she sends us every month.

* She recalls they talked once in December and again in February, but has not heard from him since and is not looped in on his process / timeline.

It may make sense for us to check in with Richard directly if we wish to push the dialogue forward as contemplated. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to discuss next steps.

Thanks,
Tyler

I'm not sure on the analysis question, but we will check in with Millie to see where things stand.
