Hey =oosman,

Would you like to purchase the Aluminum Flagpole or should we wait the 8-12 weeks for the Fiberglass Flagpole?

We have 2 Fiberglass flagpoles on LSJ.

Please advise,

Ann R.

Greetings Anna,

There is a problem with the timeline =or the receipt of the flagpole - now 8-12 weeks versus 4-5 =eeks.

Do you =ant to review this with JE? The company has suggested an =lternative. The details are below.

Let me know.

Hello Daphne. We received =he wire transfer today in the amount of $15,750.00. Thank you for =he prompt payment.

When we received the manufacturer's quote on 5/31, =hey quoted us a 4-5 week lead time which we passed along to you. =pon receipt of the wire transfer today, I contacted the pole =anufacturer to get the order into production. They have changed their lead time to 8-12 weeks based on orders they currently =ave in house. I have asked for expedited production but they =an't promise me anything.

With this being said, I would like to offer you a =hite powder coated aluminum pole that can be delivered to the freight =orwarder in about 3 weeks. We will discount the pole by $500.00 =o a price of $12,855.00. Freight would remain the same.

Please =et me know your thoughts ASAP. I have placed the order on hold =ith the fiberglass manufacturer until I hear from you. I am very =orry for the increase in lead time, but the manufacturer produces =rders as they are received.

Kindest regards,

Holly D. Grace
