I w=s awaiting approval of mockup before proceeding with forwarding pricing&nbs=; Please understand, the design has got bigger, closer to the hou=e, shallow planter beds due to change in wall heights

This in turn effects irrigation design and plant material quantities Once I have confirmation of smaller walls I should be able to get estimated costs to you fairly quickly

Maybe we should be looking at a different style of wall Making the walls smaller has made them more labor intensive.
Let know when you have time to discuss <=div>
Thx
