Jeffrey

i hope you are enjoying life to the fullest and extracting your usual percentage i have been thinking a lot about you lately partly because i keep intending to call you and though i also typically rise before 6am, the time passes when i know i have missed my optimal time before i remember to call the second is that your counsel to outline and 'solve' six or seven separate projects is bearing yet separate fruit—namely i sell myself better to those asking for speakers not just deceit and self-deception—left, right and backwards but honor killings, evolutionary feminism. homosexuality, transsexuality, human evolutionary genetics right away it has landed me a 3 grand + 3 grand engagement in London i lectured at U Mass Amherst standing room only on heterogamety and honor killings; i am on the verge of a general theory of the former but it is complex and technical, just as is the entire topic, people followed what i had to say (just barely) but honor killing brought the whole place alive where are you these days? i am in NYC on the way to Jersey and then on the 13th to Ft Lauderdale and the 16th to Jamaica

all best

bob
