=br>This color is actually a better match to the skis. I have checked with =anagement and there will be no more of these units made off of the product=on line. Can-Am is not manufacturing any more of this model for 2016. Ther= are none available throughout the eastern seaboard. I have done the resea=ch and have come up empty. We have these units paid for, signed for, built= prepped, titled and ready for delivery on Friday.
