Dear Jeffrey,

Sorry I've been such a poor correspondent: I'm in the m=ddle of a rather acrimonious divorce, which has taken up a lot o= time and energy that would have been much better spent on more =roductive things, e.g., talking with you.

Do you have time to talk one of these days? I've been l=oking at the membrane computing literature -- very interesting. =C2 It fits in closely with the work on chemical computa=ion that I've been doing (similar ideas but without the memb=anes). Also as part of writing my book I'm wor=ing on ideas of deception and decoding at the molecular scale --=also a key to origins of life.

Yours,
S=th
