I understa=d from Richard Kahn that you informed Max Kohlenberg about the financial i=formation that we provided to you yesterday, and that Kohlenberg in turn i=formed my children about this. Plainly, this is quite improper. ♦=A0 Kohlenberg is not my lawyer and has no right to know anything that I do=not personally provide him, and this information is certainly not the affa=r of my children or anyone else. This is a serious breach of confide=tiality. Could you please inform me -- and me alone! -- of the amoun= of taxes that are due.
