Hi Jeffrey,=C2

This apartment was my one chance to move out of my mothers house. =taying with my mom was never the plan for good. And I thought me hel=ing out was so J [REDACTED] could travel with you, and now I found out she had a =full time job, and made more money than I did. No one even thought it was i=portant to discuss anything with me and include me in that decision making= And I feel betrayed. I struggled this entire year with hopes that I could=gt; get an apartment for myself and this was all I could come up with. And now=I can't even claim her on my tax return because she worked. What=do you suggest I do? I think the best option is for me to get an annulment=because her salary is causing problems for my income,taxes and apartment. =ou both didn't think it important to talk to me about all of this when=my life is being effected as a result of [REDACTED] s decisions. we aren't sharing income, yet her income is being considered into my mine. = agreed to do this even with all of the danger involved because I cared ab=ut you and your happiness. And I feel like my happiness wasn't e=en considered. I'm not asking for some of her money, just an annulment=so I can live the life I want based on my income.

Thanks,
