Hey...wait a minute...didn't I already write exactly t=is?!

A very int=esting profile could be done because the story is so colorful.

Starting with the school teaching background with a few anecdote=es that project a teacher's salary into billions is amazing to begin w=th.

Then the high profile work with major int=ernational figures. The Florida scandal giving your side of it-or-if that&#9;s too touchy then throwing it away as a set back to a career that contin=ed in spite of it to the current life style which is fascinating. The prop=rties and elaborate houses, the major charity work and patron to cutting e=ge science, the dinners at the New York mansion with you sitting around th= dinner table in sweat suit hosting utterly weird combinations for dinner-= scientist, a politician, a representative from a foreign government, a ma=ician, Broadway comics-all mixed together with any number of come and go gu=sts of all types. Then off on a private plane the next day (with ex girl f=iend as pilot maybe) to advise some newly emerging nation on their economy=

All this paints a fabulously interesting pic=ure of an amazing and totally unique life.

I =an't imagine any journalist or writer of any sort passing up a chance =o chronicle this.

If s friendly, on your side about=the scandal issue-could be relied on then a fabulous documentary is also t=ere.
