Yesterday I went to the supermarket and when I looked at my receipt, there was a 62 cent senior discount factored in. The first time this ever happened, very humbling since I still feel like I'm 30, well maybe 45.

Hi Jeffrey,

I am thinking of you on what I truly hope is your birthday. I've been screwing it up forever, but I am pretty sure it's the 20th and not the 22nd. I hope you're better than well and having fun, today and always. I am reading "City on Fire" by Hallberg and think you'd enjoy it too. Nothing spiritual, just an engrossing 900-page novel, you can't put down until it's done.

Love you,
