Hi Jeffrey,

I am coming on the 26 April – 4 May. Arriving around 4.30 pm on the 26 April...

I realised after we spoke that it was probably cheeky of me to expect you to give me a bed after so many years absence and silence.

I know how important ones privacy is and obviously the intervening years might cause a moment's thought and or concern.

Heading towards ones twilight years, naturally my thoughts have turned to landmark events and friends in my life, and you are definitely one of them, I learned a lot and had so much fun , you were amazing, I loved your stories. Your first apartment in London, I still have the salt and pepper pots you gave me!! What a memento..... you were just a kid!

My apologies if I presumed too much I will understand if it does not work out, but would love to see you nevertheless.

If it can be arranged even a few nights perhaps at the beginning when I arrive around 4pm on the 26th April for a few nights, until I sort myself out. I have not been in New YORK for some time it is a little daunting as I know so few people who live there anymore.

Of course the Barrett's whom I have remained close to as ever. Antony has done so well such a lovely family man, as had Johnathan & Paul, and I feel truly responsible that I was the trigger alongside with you to give them a start in New York

Wait to hear,

Much love as ever,

Aldine x

Much love,
As ever,
