youve agreed that

Y=ur office is a multi billion dollar responsibility. your children will nee= it to oversee their financial lives- I feel badly for you tru=y but the facts are the facts, your ceo (Brad) has pro=ided one bad document after another for over a year , bad cash=flows no new IT, each time with " its gettti=g better " no! its not. - the excuse=C2♦ that Brad is not the numbers guy, is ludicorus. of course he didnt=C2♦ actually prepare the statements. - no ceo would , but =ver and over he presented them to you and me , after reviewing multi=le times and multiple drafts. weeks of his hands on editing, missi=g the obvious of errors . (gaming) inaccuracies, (cas=flow) and mistakes (tax returns). the simple reason is that at best= he is a c minus, (note. I, like you ,also give points for effort.)= ! an elegant art partnership gone fallow. ??!!I and it= core reason to exist. not in use ? no docs for plane, still =C2♦ why? no docs for decantings why? docs for deal 1 =eceived last night " no docs for deal 2 " . why wasn=#39;t Tom brought in , after 4 times of my incessant reminders♦=A0 your admontion etc. the trading accounts ? the banks=presented many times simple things. still nothing.

=div> Barry Cohen is great. you asked , - =C2♦ I did my best trying to train your brad chosen . people in the=face of my telling you that they were never going to be more than c-minuse=, thousands of emails thousands ? Brad at its head♦=A0 . you cant as a ceo, have an accountant give you pages of n=mbers with the most important missing altogether and not notice, yo= and I saw the errors right away ,as did my very junior bookeeper. = its silly. re your estate. Yes another Brad issue=- your will needs revision. the tenants in common structure♦=A0 I assume Alan has carefully walked you through. . as it is way ov=rdue needed and exciting. I won't list the more serious i=sues in an email but we can speak over the weekend.

How can I help? We agreed at the time when you hired =astrucci , that when you fired him, I would bear no responsibility b=cause it was clear that he shouldnt be hired. brad and you both sai=, " its on us", but...

being weaned of our biz=/pay realtionship has been our mutual goal. However sinc= novemebr, you chose to do so by ignoring' our agree=ent re, phaidon, and your oft stated commitment to me of =arge payments for large value, (37 percent was our number). =hose to pay me a number picked by what appears to be only by w=im,- have yet to justify it except for telling me=that you and Brad Karp talked.. .

What should we d=? the next two years in biz appears to both you and I , very =ragile.
