Here is my latest email to Mattie...it's groveling and my last resort.

Where are you? Can we talk?

The apartment is a nightmare. Lawyer is good....now he has me interviewing with Susan Gutfreund three new contractors to finish. I am OK living between 2E.70th and the Carlyle...but it's wearing me down. Business good. xoxo

If one sends money to anyone else, as a pure gesture of love, support and concern, the mature and responsible response would be an acknowledgment of receipt.

A simple indication..... as unnecessary as the money is, would be....I did receive it. I have not asked for a declaration of appreciation.

I work very hard for my money, as do you.

You must be very aware of the explosion of news about gender equality. My experience with this goes back 70 years. Your experiences exist for 30 years. We are living in historic tumultuous times. One must live in the present and future.

I am very sad every day about this lack of all communication between us. Everyone has a better life with family support and interaction. I do not know how else to reach out to you.

I hope you are getting everything you want out of your life. I know you are so strong and self-reliant. I find this complete isolation heart-breaking.
xoxo your aunt...Peggy

Glad you responded to Happy. Would like to hear from you too. Are you OK?

I never get any acknowledgment of the money I send you every month. Are you receiving those checks? It would be nice to know any gift is appreciated as unnecessary as it might be. Peggy Thanks Peggy. I heard back from Mattie, however haven't heard back about the status of the film I wanted to discuss with her.

I will reach out again, once I hear from them, but for now, looking into other projects.

Thanks for following up,

Happy
