> Sorry I missed your emails and am responding to you this late. I must =ell you that I decided not to take your friend's offer.
>
> The situation in my husband's family got worse last month: his mother =as hospitalized for lung failure right after Thanksgiving holiday in =ddition to his father suffering with Alzheimer's disease. They need not =nly a financial support but also my physical presence. Fortunately with =y current job I can work remotely as long as I'm wired.
>
> Also while I was preparing my resume, I started to think more clearly =hat it is not a wise decision to throw my career which I've built for =ast 18 years.

> Plus when I went over my current salary level, bonus allowance, other > fringe benefits, my desirable income increase =oes not make sense to ask for a secretarial work's compensation.
> Besides I don't think Jeff will satisfy with my work skill: speaking =nd writing only in broken English, etc.
>
> Anyway I thank you so much for your contact and top of all it was good =o hear from you!!! Hope I can see you soon in near future.
