i am sending this 'gmail' as slightly more private than Ru=gers but we know there is no such thing as privacy on the internet, so i l=ok forward to a long walk talking through some of this but can not resist =riting you now i have left Rutgers, and am now 80=miles south, feeling better with every mile. i fly to Ft Lauderdale Sunday=and will set up a home there for the next six months

<=div>

i hope to see you shortly, we have much to discuss and better don= in private i met with John Brockman on Monday qu=te by surprise—turns out he saw Wild Life and tweeted it to all hi=tweeties for which i was grateful, so we had lunch together—wife,=son, himself seemed fine then the conversation tu=ned to you two things of interest

first i learned of restrictions imposed on you on re-entry in the=state, restrictions that would cause me not to visit the state

<=r>

secondly i learned of other social restrictions, i am sure pa=nful to endure let me say no more

<=div>

i will call you from Florida

bob
