I was driving around Palm Beach yesterday, showing my friend who had never been here the usual sights; The Breakers, North Ave., the homes along Ocean Drive, registered offenders' homes, etc. I was surprised that your gate was open. Told your guy there to say hi.

Heading to Miami to the boat.

A comic said "it's easy to have a good time once you have kids, all you have to do is not be with them". (thought you'd appreciate that one)
