in egp 10 11 and 12, the little tree seems not to have been removed , it is this area , it doesnt have to be level with the rest but it does have to be flat

Attached photo's for your consideration

Please note: With the 20' addition to the north, the NE corner will extend 5' to the north of the white pole in the pictures

We need to compact the dirt and rebuild the retaining wall at the east corner, before doing final rough grading at the east end of the existing garden

regards Brice

this does not look right , it is directly east of the brick bed that needs the most attention as it is close and sits next to color. Please take more photos of that area.
