Dea= Jeffrey,

As you p=obably know, Woody Allen's legal team said that we couldn't use th= film we shot of him: online, for broadcast, anywhere.

It was a fantastic experience =aping with him and so, even if I can't ever use the footage, I'm s=ill grateful to you for making the day possible. But of course I'd lik= to use the footage. I decided when--way back-- we got this very negative =nswer back from his lawyers that I should just take my time ab=ut asking --since it would take us 2 years to be ready to edit the footage=anyway (The online course is chronological. When I taped Woody we were sti= back in 1730. Now we've gotten to the 1920s)

Well, we've now arrived at the seaso= when we'll be editing materials on William Carlos Williams for our co=rse on Modernism and, as we discussed on Saturday, on poetry =nd other arts, The Poetry of Art, Sport, and Play

I would also, of course, love to m=ke a tv episode out of the conversation, but the threshold question is whe=her he'll let us use it for anything at all. In case it would ma=ter,

Other perform=rs who have already taped with me include

John Lithgow,
Diane Paulus
Julie Taymor
Nas
Eve Ensler
Damian Woetzel
Kate Burton
Lil Buck Riley
Alfre Woodard
Herbie Hancock
Tony Kushner
Natalia Zukerman =E2◆◆◆
◆=80◆

and those who have agreed to tape with me i=clude

Sal=y Field
Lena D=nham
Yo Yo Ma=C2◆
Anna Dev=are Smith
◆=80◆and more.

T=ose in other fields include journalists, senators, president clinton etc e=c. You've read my pitch before (many times)

His is one of only two releases that we haven't gotten. What do you think of my chances?

Lisa
