Subject: [REDACTED] - between us

I feel sad because I feel like I see the same thing from b=th sides and there may be a misunderstanding.
When I am around you I a= sad and upset that she doesn't come to see you and I had beliieved it=was her choice.
However, picking up on her language last night I feel like=she feels you dont care very much to see her and I know this isn't the=case.

She loves you so much and she melts when I tell her sweet =ittle stories of our Jeffrey. She told me she misses you a lot!!
She has obviously picked up on it and s=id something along the lines of she feels like you don't like him.

Anyway...she loves you very much!!
