Yes. I think he is, perhaps, rather restricted in his total focus on happiness.
He is probably the world's most experienced and advanced meditator. He can light up specific areas of the brain at will. He has done over 100 hours in MRI machines for studies on mapping the brain. We are looking at using those studies to see if Hyatt can develop training to increase empathy among our people.
He has a PhD in molecular biology before going to the yellow hats. &nb=p;
