Please play hard. They have no rights to do what they are doing to Noam, and their accusations against me are not real. They are inventing all kinds of fantasies and have been distorting and manipulating reality. All the money being spent is for OUR life and comfort, common use.

Noam's best friend, Morris Hall, died two days ago, at the age of 94. We flew to Boston for some hours to spend Morris' last hours with him. This is making Noam think even more about his children's attitude. From my point of view is totally unacceptable and outrageous.
