Couldn't take many pictures at the party; there was a photographer and we will get the photo-report. One girl I liked - Carlotta bulgari, very nice. The only cute one. Almost got in trouble when Olympia's boyfriend said that I was the most beautiful girl at the party=

Made some European friends, Sasha du Gunzburger, not cute, but very connected. The party wasn't that great, the birthday girl was turning 18 and most of her friends were VERY young.
