Gene told me that we can have the Barge= anytime we want. He doesn't have a problem with us bringing the barge back=home even though the invoices aren't paid.

Bosco is bringing the Bar=e to Redhook at the end of the day.

Just spoke with Gene from Subbase regarding outstanding invoices:

<=r>
balance due per original 260,000 invoice 58,843

balance du= on unpaid 8,000 engine work = 8,000
Island Rigging Invoice - materials &a=p; oil disposal &nbs=; 2,670
Island Rigging Invoice - labor = 4,123
Subbase - additional labor & fuel disposal invoice 3,518

To=al = 77,154

<=iv>

I told Gene that we wanted to do a 10% holdback as we hav= done in all of our previous construction contracts. He said that=his is the first time he is hearing of this and cannot do this in the last=hour. If we mentioned before work began he would have considered.

Regarding invoices above i told him 58,843 and 8,000 w=re as originally agreed to and we were ok to pay. I told him that=when we agreed to 260,000 he specifically said that he would not nickel and=dime us on small stuff and that i believed invoices for Island Rigging (2,670 & 4,123) and Subbase 3,518 felt like we were being nickeled=and dimed after almost 360,000 in work with him. He strongly disagreed and went on with all the extra work he did. I told him that i would like to pay him 58,843 and 8,000 today and we would revisit 3=other small charges totaling 10,311 on Monday. I think= at best i can get him to agree to 50% of 10,311 as he is being very firm. He also said he stands by all his work that he just completed.

Gene will release boat this afternoon to Bosco if we pay 6=,843

Please advise if ok to pay 66,843

Thank you
