Leon , I sugges= you bring melanie into the loop , I dont text and you will miss a l=t without email. there will be many steps to consider.=C2 talk at 4 . ie email below jeffrey ,

We can't bring a private case against her in ny, only in london. And even=20 in london, it's very tricky. Our london lawyer says she likely will los= a criminal trial for blackmail, though it's certainly not my (or your) preferred outcome.

brad

dear brad ,
can you have lorin or someone actually determine the likihood of bringing a real case against her in either london or new=20 york.. so far i have not seen anything concrete. leon thinks a =ase is viable in london, too much riding on that fact for it to be non feasible though technically possible
