if you think it would be fun I could set up a meal with Terje Roed Larsen, . . , oslo accords. he is a very close friend. I think you might enjoy it. .

Would be quite interesting, if you can work it out. Have to say that your contacts around the world are impressive – if not jaw-dropping.

On another note , i now wonder if a language could be defined as something a baby can make sense of. . that would eliminate computers bees etc.

I don't see how this would get us anywhere. Similarly, if we defined the waggle dance as something that bees makes sense of that wouldn't help us understand what it is.
