Subject: Jawbone

i spoke with Andrew Linsey, Anna and Will from Code Advisors =s Hosain was unavailable last week only 5,000,000 of =nvestment would be covered as this can only apply to preferred =hares our =nvestment in Series 5 was as follows:

Preferred 695,301 x 7.19113 = ,000,000
Common 1,260,233 x 3.96792 = ,000,000

I =as told on call that valuation of company at time of Series 5 was =,650,000 post Series 6, 7, 8 and Blackrock =ote have further diluted our investment and although they would not =ive me an exact figure our new breakeven without Series 8 participation =ppears to be 3,250,000

With Series 8 investment of 833,000 i believe believe we =ould receive the following on a sale of company post April 28 =016

1,000,000 7,500,000 from preferred and 0 =rom common (0 received without Series 8)
2,000,000 =nbsp; =/span>7,500,000 from preferred and 0 from common (0 received without =eries 8)
3,000,000 7,500,000 =rom preferred and 0 from common (0 received without Series 8)
3,250,000 7,500,000 from preferred and =,000,000 from common (10,000,000 received without Series 8)

it appears Series 8 =rotection provides protection from 1,000,000 to 3,250,000 on =iquidation

April 28 2016 is key date as it is 1 year anniversary of =lackrock investment and if company sold before that date they have a 3x =iquidation preference

As of last friday they have raised 33,000,000 =f the 35,000,000 needed for Blackrock to release final =0,000,000 If that is achieved they =ould have raised since April 28 2015:

220,000,000 Blackrock original =ote
40,000,000 Series 8 JPM (34) and Sequia =6)
50,000,000 Blackrock =dditional
35,000,000 Series 8 (33mm raised =o date)
50,000,000 =nbsp; Blackrock final
395,000,000 =nbsp;Total raised

As of Sep 11, 2015 there =ash flow was as follows:

30,000,000 in cash
85,000,000 (Series 8 and final Blackrock)
115,000,000 potential cash

Once 85,000,000 is secured they will finalize deal for an ABL credit line in the amount of 50,000,000 that will be collateralized by AR and Inventory

They mentioned that Q4 would be cash flow positive however they did not elaborate on what their loss for 2015 or 2016 would be..

When I pressed them and said I thought they would be out of money by mid 2016 and we again may be further diluted with a Series 9 or 10 they responded that they had new management that would not allow this

They said Jason Child, new CFO, has already run analysis to ensure that they remain cash flow positive in 2016. Not sure that is so realistic as they also mentioned that Fitbit already has market share and that they will not chase market share via lower pricing or marketing

In addition they will not build large inventories with vendors if they need to conserve cash

Andrew stated that Hosain made poor non financially focused decisions and new CFO will not allow that moving forward. Jawbone believes it will be the leader in the next phase which will evolve from basic wellness to health and medical (blood pressure, respiration and oxidation)

Analogy was used that basic wellness market is similar to smartphones in the early 2000's and Symbian who was leader disappeared

My concerns are as follows:

a) Jawbone is always one step behind and they keep jumping to the next Hot idea..

b) There will inevitably be a Series 9 / 10 round as I believe they will again run out of cash middle of next year causing further dilution to Series 8 they are asking us to participate in

Andrew also sent email with codes for free UP 2 or UP 3 product

I will order and have for you on your next visit (do you have a color preference - black, silver, indigo and red?)

Please advise how you want to proceed with Series 8 proposed investment of 833,000

Thank you
