Jeffrey,

By now you have been informed of my arrest on Thursday August 6, 2015 on charges of corruption. The charges are baseless and amount to witch hunting. I have retained counsel and intend to aggressively fight these allegations. In the meantime, my co-principal and staff of the Jaredian Design Group are committed to continue providing the high level of quality our clients have come to expect on all of our projects. We appreciate your understanding and continued support during this difficult time.

John
