Hey Bossman,

I was thinking maybe we could sell the Mechanical building to the highest bi=der? Then the buyer could come over to do the demo by taking it apart like a=puzzle, put it on a low boy and go with it.

It's still a great building and I would hate to see it go to waste...

1. We could probably do a trade off with Andy over our bill with him.
2. We could sell it to Big Sam.
3. We could sell it to Better Roads
4. We could sell it to Heavy Materials.

If we can't find a buyer then we crush it. What are your thoughts?

Please advise,
Ann R.
