=ey Jeffrey,

I just want to thank you for sending me to camp this summer. I didn't really think I would like it until a week or 2 passed. I made some really awesome friends that I would never want to lose. I've made this on= friendship that I wouldn't trade for the world. I got into things tha= I wasn't really into as much such as horseback riding and dance. I re=ll enjoyed the experience once I made friends that I could do the activit=es with and pushed me to try new things. I went from a beginner horseback =ider to an advanced intermediate. I didn't move up any more because I =wisted my ankle but I still enjoyed myself whether it was dancing or going=to the beach bash they had every other weekend. I also enjoyed my birthday= even though I wasn't the happiest person knowing that I wouldn't =pend it with family, the friends I made there tried to make the best birth=ay ever and sure enough they did. I woke to a birthday song with letters, =ards, balloons and candy. That night we had a western theme dance where we=dressed up as cowgirls. The next day we went Universal Studios on the excu=sion and ate at the HardRock Cafe, the whole restaurant sung me happy birt=day and I got a free dessert. I was so sad to leave all of my new friends =ehind, I was literally in tears saying by to everyone. I just want to say =hank you again for the experience and I hope to go back next year. Oh! I w=nted to ask if I can go to the ranch to go horseback riding again?
